

The Law Firm of Steckel and Stopp hosted an intern, Abhay Muttur, over the summer months. A Lower Merion resident, Abhay, began his internship in May 2015. Abhay worked with the estate administration department and real estate department along with taking on various other projects for the Firm. The son of computer engineer Umesh Muttur and teacher's assistant Shobha Muttur, Abhay has lived most of his life in the Lehigh Valley, where he enjoys spending time with his family. As an avid reader and admirer of literature he also serves as the secretary of Penn State's undergraduate literary magazine, Kalliope. Muttur hopes to attend law school after completing his bachelor's degree in Economics and History at Penn State University.

The Firm has various locations and has been serving the needs of the Lehigh Valley area for over sixty-seven years with a concentration in the areas of real estate, estate planning, elder law and estate and trust administration. Offices locations are: 1036 Main Street, Slatington PA 18080; 125 S. Walnut Street, Suite 210, Slatington PA 18080; 4331 Route 309, Schnecksville PA 18078 and 2152 Main Street, Northampton PA 18067.
