

NATIONAL PUBLIC RADIO HAS LOCAL ATTORNEY AS GUEST

Lehigh Valley attorney, Attorney Charles W. Stopp recently appeared as a guest on the local National Public Radio show hosted by a well-respected financial planner Laurie Siebert, CPA, CFP, AEP. Laurie Siebert hosts a show every Wednesday on the National Public Radio Station WDIY on a variety of financial and estate planning subjects. Attorney Stopp presented on the topic of the variety of trusts that are available to assist in one's estate planning so as to economize with respect to asset distribution and to take advantage of asset protection and death tax minimization techniques. Attorney Stopp has previously appeared as a guest on the National Public Radio Station.

Steckel & Stopp Law Firm with offices at Main Street and Walnut Street, Slatington; Schnecksville and Northampton and has been serving the estate planning, asset protection and elder law needs of the Lehigh Valley area for over 67 years.